*This is not an official Court Notice.
Information contained in this summary is subject to change.*

You may be eligible for a refund in the Automotive Parts Litigation if at any time between 1995 and 2018, depending upon the component part, you bought or leased a qualifying vehicle in the U.S. (not for resale).

- Qualifying vehicles are four-wheeled passenger automobiles, cars, light trucks, pickup trucks, crossovers, vans, mini-vans, and sport utility vehicles
- The Court has granted final approval to the Round 4 Settlements. A deadline to file claims has not yet been established. If and when additional settlements are announced, notice will be sent to everyone that previously registered or filed a claim.
- Each lawsuit claims that the Defendants in that lawsuit agreed to unlawfully raise the price of a certain kind of vehicle component part.
- As a result of the alleged agreements by Defendants, consumers and businesses who purchased or leased qualifying new vehicles containing those parts or who indirectly purchased qualifying replacement parts from the Defendants may have paid more than they should have.
